

FINAL CLEAN UP ON Winter Garments.

We are needing the room for Spring Goods which will soon begin to arrive and we desire to make a clean sweep of all our Winter Tailor-made Suits, Coats, Men's Suits, Heavy Overcoats, Sweaters and Flannel Overshirts. If the price is an inducement to you, then come and see the big values we are offering you for the next few days. Big discounts on Dress Skirts, Kimonos and Wrappers.

Morrison Bros & Co

313-315 Main Street.

LOCAL NEWS.

Old Indian River Rye.—Oriental.
Go to the Majestic tonight, 10c.
School books and supplies.—Makin.
R. V. Work was here from Artesia today.
Boellner, the Jeweler, has it cheaper. 37tf
John Cathcart of Hagerman was in town today.
Wyatt Johnson went to Artesia Sunday night on business.
W. F. Marsh went to his ranch near Elida this morning.
O. W. White returned Sunday night from a business trip to Ohio.
W. A. Wilson went to Artesia Sunday night on a business trip.
E. T. Amoret returned this morning from a trip to Lake Arthur.
W. R. Friermood, of Artesia, was in town today visiting friends.
Rollie Nelson left this morning for Lincoln, Neb., to enter school.
George C. Stanford and wife, of Hagerman, were visitors here today.
$1,500 to let on good security. Inquire at Makin's 2nd Hand Store. 7113*
Don't fail to see our list of bargains in this issue.—Carlton & Bell.
W. A. Vickers came up from Hagerman this morning to remain two days.
Mrs. C. E. Robbins and daughter, Miss Grace, were here shopping from Dexter today.
If you buy right you can always sell for a profit. Buy real estate from Carlton & Bell.
S. H. Reed, of Lake Arthur, came up today to spend the day looking after business.
Mrs. Sam Brame returned this morning from a visit with Mrs. Ella Davidson at Hagerman.

T. F. Cazler returned to Avalon, Sunday night after spending several days with his family.
Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Norwood came in Sunday night from Nelson, Neb., on a sight-seeing trip.
T. O. Holden returned Sunday night from Amarillo, where he has been several days on business.
John I. Hinkle, cashier of the Bank of Hagerman, spent Sunday here with his brother, James F. Hinkle.
Mrs. Ella Jackson went to Hagerman Sunday night to spend several days with Mrs. Ella Davidson.
W. A. Cooksey returned today to his home in Alva, O. T., having spent a few days with friends here.
We have all kinds of bargains in city property of all kinds. See us before you buy.—Carlton & Bell.
Miss Nellie Turknett, who attends school here, went to her home in Artesia Sunday night to spend a week.
If you want first class work, see Everman. All kinds of carpenter work and building. Phone 107. 69t6
After the first of February the Pecos Valley Steam Laundry will do nothing but a strictly cash business. 7312.
Will Roundtree left this morning for Ft. Worth, where he will secure a position and make his home with his aunt.
Come and get all that is coming to you. Shaves 15c; hot towels and neck shaves free in every union shop in the city. 70t6
Miss Margaret Beaty left today on a few days' business and pleasure trip to Waco and other towns in Central Texas.
Mr. Hodge, railroad construction contractor, left this morning for points in the Panhandle to be gone several days.
Mrs. L. E. Jones left this morning for Trenton, Mo., where she will spend the remainder of the winter with her sister.

How To Make Money

There are plenty of men in Roswell who have gotten rich on real estate, and it is the easiest and only safe way to make money. Just for example, consider that 240 acre block of close in, tilled Hondo Land I have for immediate sale. It will double in value in a few months, as soon as the water is turned on. It is the best thing I have ever offered, and while it is a cash proposition, I can arrange terms if you would like it that way.

A. O. Millice

ROOM 8—TEXAS BLOCK.
PHONE 375. ROSWELL, N. M.

Best program yet. Majestic.

Nine year old Rippy.—Oriental.

Wire nails, 2c a pound; 7 bars of laundry or toilet soap for 25c. Good buggy whip 10c.—Makin's Bargain Store.

W. C. Holland, a student at the Woolverton college, returned this morning from a Sunday visit at his home in Dexter.

W. M. Reed returned to Carlsbad Sunday night after spending several days here on official business and visiting his family.

Physical Culture and Elocution, class and private lessons, by Gertrude MacLeod, late of the Emerson College, Boston, Mass. 74tf

Harold and Richmond Hams, Charles Lyons, J. E. Whitehorn and W. D. Crowder, of Lake Arthur, were business visitors here today.

The best and safest way to make money is to invest in real estate. We have some of the best bargains in the Valley. See us.—Carlton & Bell.

The Roswell Mexicans beat the "Darktown Sluggers" in an interesting game of baseball in Chihuahua addition yesterday afternoon, 15 to 5.

W. P. Anderson, livestock agent of the Santa Fe in this part of the world, left his morning for Denver to attend the American Live Stock Convention.

Mrs. W. F. Shamleffer and daughter Caddie, of Council Grove, Kansas, are in the city visiting Mrs. J. A. B. Bear, who is a sister of Mrs. Shamleffer.

O. J. Earle left this morning for his home in Kankakee, Ill., after seeing the beauties of Roswell's Italian climate and the Pecos Valley's matchless farms.

Miss Thelma Parker returned this morning from a week's visit with her sister, Miss Belle Parker, who is in charge of the local telephone office at Hagerman.

160 acre farm, finely improved, located in central Oklahoma, to trade for property in or near Roswell. What have you got?—Carlton & Bell, opposite postoffice.

$500,000 to loan on irrigated farms long time loans, interest payable annually with privilege to pay off loan before due.—J. B. Herbst, Financial Agent, 303 N. Main, opp. P. O.

J. P. Rhodes, the immigration agent left this morning on his return to his home in Joplin, Mo., after spending several days here with prospectors. He is going home for a sleigh ride, he says.

Frank Pearce has returned from a business trip to Amarillo and has been confined to his room for several days with tonsillitis. He was able to be up town today for the first time since his return.

If sold within the next 30 days I will take $6,000 for my 16 2-3 acre orchard known as the Crawford orchard, situated about one mile northeast from the court house in Roswell. This property is well worth $500 per acre, and may soon be worth more. E. L. WILDY, Los Angeles, Calif. (smwt6) 206 Grant Bldg.

Max Gonzales Arrives With Bride. Max Gonzales, harness-maker at E. T. Amoret's shop, arrived Sunday morning from Trinidad, Colo., bringing with him his bride to whom he was married last Wednesday night at Raton, N. M. The young lady's name was Miss Maclovio Romero. The wedding occurred at the Spanish Methodist church and was witnessed by a large crowd of friends. The couple will live with the groom's mother at her home on West Alameda street, where they are at home to their many friends. They were accompanied here by the bride's sister, Miss Cidela Romero, who is here for a visit.

Dead Mexican Found Sunday. J. B. Finley came to Roswell this morning and reported that he found the remains of a dead Mexican in Bob Corn's pasture fifteen miles northwest of Roswell, Sunday. He conveyed the news to the proper authorities and they will go after the body. The coyotes had eaten the flesh from the face of the dead man and decomposition had set in. It is thought to be the body of Mr. Corn's sheep herder, who disappeared during the severe snow storm of November.

Best to Plant Now. Now is the best time to plant trees, before the roots begin to grow. R. F. Cruise has all kinds cheap.

ULLERY FURNITURE CO. BUYS FINE WHITE TEAM.

Clarence Ullery, always on the alert, closed a trade today with Dr. H. M. Jones, the veterinary surgeon, for the fine white, pure bred Arabian team which Dr. Jones has been driving on the streets of Roswell the last few days. They are the only team of the kind in this part of the country, and will be used by the Ullery Furniture Co. in their funeral business.

GOING TO NATIONAL STOCK CONVENTION.

The Pecos Valley will be well represented at the American National Live Stock Convention and Fine Stock Show that will be held in Denver on January 22 and 23. The party started for the Rocky Mountain metropolis Sunday morning, filling part of two cars. Among those who went were J. P. White and Lon Cottingham, of Roswell, and the following from Carlsbad: T. A. Ezell and wife, Allen Heard, wife and daughter, I. S. Osborne and wife, Mrs. Eskridge, C. W. Merchant (of Abilene, Tex.) Mrs. Lige Merchant, Miles Stone and W. P. Mudgett. They are expecting a good time, as Denver has planned many special features of entertainment for the stockmen and their wives.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

An important meeting will be held at the rooms of the Commercial Club Wednesday night at 7:30. This meeting is called to discuss the proposition to divide Chaves and Eddy counties and form a new county with Artesia as the county seat. It is believed that the sentiment of the taxpayers in the valley is overwhelming in condemnation of any such proposition, and the meeting is for the purpose of taking some concerted action. A good attendance is necessary, and will undoubtedly be had, as every taxpayer is vitally interested in any move which threatens to raise our already high tax rate.

An "Orthodox" Sketch.

A Communication. The Register-Tribune of Jan. 10, contained a criticism on music, contributed by the "Tenderfoot," that reminds me of a conversation I once heard on a train, between two men that were returning from a trip to the city. One asked the other what he attended the last night he was there. He replied that he "went to the theatre to hear a farce-comedy called Faust," (he pronounced it Fost), but that he "did not enjoy it at all, there was nothing funny about it—just bosh, like all the rest of Shakespeare's plays."

All musicians agree with the Tenderfoot in regard to the real melody of the songs he mentions; but a perfect circle is not a picture; neither is simple melody all of music. It is of course the foundation. Could anything sound more ridiculous than the Mass of the Catholic church sung from beginning to end to a simple melody in the key of C Major? Just imagine the "Kyrie Eleison," "Gloria In Excelsis," "Qui Tollis," "Cum Sancto," "Credo," "Et Incarnatus Est," "Et Resurrexit," "Sanctus," "Benedictus," "Agnus Dei," and "Donna Nobis," the entire service of the Mass, sung to the tune of "Annie Laurie," or the tragedy of "Romeo and Juliet," or "Othello" set to music in the key of G. Major, using only the Tonic, Dominant, and Sub-Dominant chords. Do you think, Mr. Tenderfoot, the scene in which Juliet drinks the sleeping potion, or the jealous fury of Othello, could be depicted by such music as the "Swanee Ribber?"

There are no emotions, nor combination of emotions, that music can not portray.

To him, whose ear is attuned to hear, Life is a grand symphony. The Master that created it, is also the conductor; a wave of His baton, and the Orchestra of Nature, with a few deep, solemn chords, begins the introduction of the principal theme; we hear the joyous allegro of childhood, the impetuous presto of youth, with its ardent counter themes embellished with grace notes and trills, modulating into grave manhood, accompanied by intermediate themes of varied and complex motives; the adagio of old age, and then the Grand Finale, of which we only hear faint echoes as the theme melts into the glorious chorus of Eternity. "Midst all the chords, that vibrate through Earth's strangely chequered dream, There runs a theme, whose gentle tone Is heard aright by him alone."

Who lists with care extreme, Do you think musicians would attend Grand Opera, and rave over it as classical. They know the difference between classical and operatic music, just as they know a symphony concert is not a potpourri of operatic airs and negro melodies, nor an "Oratorio Concert" the correct name for a concert at which is rendered the "Gloria" from Mozart's Twelfth Mass, and the rest of the program simply popular music. "Sacred" concert would be inappropriate for such. I agree with you, there is a lot of snobbishness and foolishness about music among the "assumed cultured."

You say you "have heard the best singers the world has known." Did you ever hear Patti sing "The Last Rose of Summer," "Home Sweet Home," or "Comin' Thro the Rye" or the glorious voice of Melba in "Way Down on the Swanee Ribber?" (which she often uses for an encore, playing the accompaniment herself), or are you "merely a monument of pretension?"

There are no Patis, Melbas, Nordicas, Sembrichs nor Schuma-Heliks among the singers, nor Padrewskis among the pianists of Roswell. If there were, how long do you think they would remain? I am sure they would not wait for the train; they would leave on the U. S. automobile. There are in Roswell some thorough, conscientious musicians, brought here by the force of circumstances; they are striving to create a love for the purest and best in music, and if you only knew what a discouraging task it is, even when supported by the press and community, you would be careful. Perhaps that very article you wrote has undone some teacher's work for the entire year with some pupil with whom she has been working hard to instill a love for something a little higher in music than "Arkansas Traveler with Variations," "Dixie," "Marching Through Georgia," and the modern musical trash like "Waltz Me 'Round Again, Willie."

When you accuse the musicians of the world of snobbishness and assumed culture when they express their pleasure in listening to grand opera or to a classical composition correctly interpreted, you simply do not know

BUGGIES!

We have just received a car of

STUDEBAKER

Buggies, Wagons and Runabouts. A style to suit everyone.

Roswell Hardware Co
RELIABLE GOODS AT REASONABLE PRICES

cert is not a potpourri of operatic airs and negro melodies, nor an "Oratorio Concert" the correct name for a concert at which is rendered the "Gloria" from Mozart's Twelfth Mass, and the rest of the program simply popular music. "Sacred" concert would be inappropriate for such. I agree with you, there is a lot of snobbishness and foolishness about music among the "assumed cultured."

You say you "have heard the best singers the world has known." Did you ever hear Patti sing "The Last Rose of Summer," "Home Sweet Home," or "Comin' Thro the Rye" or the glorious voice of Melba in "Way Down on the Swanee Ribber?" (which she often uses for an encore, playing the accompaniment herself), or are you "merely a monument of pretension?"

There are no Patis, Melbas, Nordicas, Sembrichs nor Schuma-Heliks among the singers, nor Padrewskis among the pianists of Roswell. If there were, how long do you think they would remain? I am sure they would not wait for the train; they would leave on the U. S. automobile. There are in Roswell some thorough, conscientious musicians, brought here by the force of circumstances; they are striving to create a love for the purest and best in music, and if you only knew what a discouraging task it is, even when supported by the press and community, you would be careful. Perhaps that very article you wrote has undone some teacher's work for the entire year with some pupil with whom she has been working hard to instill a love for something a little higher in music than "Arkansas Traveler with Variations," "Dixie," "Marching Through Georgia," and the modern musical trash like "Waltz Me 'Round Again, Willie."

When you accuse the musicians of the world of snobbishness and assumed culture when they express their pleasure in listening to grand opera or to a classical composition correctly interpreted, you simply do not know what you are writing about, and I would advise you to confine yourself to criticisms of literature and "The Barbarian," for the really cultured will agree with you there.

JEANNETTE HIBBARD.

Old Indian River Rye.—Oriental.

COMPROMISE BROWNSVILLE RESOLUTION.

Washington, Jan. 21.—An agreement was reached today by the Republican senators on a substitute resolution on the Brownsville question which is to be introduced by Senator Foraker, and it is asserted that it will receive the unanimous vote of the majority party. In addition to providing for an investigation by the Senate Committee on Military Affairs of the Brownsville affair, the resolution carries a declaration that the committee shall not raise the question as to the President's right to discharge the negro soldiers.

ELLEN TERRY HAS TAKEN IT BACK.

New York, Jan. 21.—Ellen Terry, the actress, who arrived here yesterday, denies that she said before leaving England that she would not leave the civilized parts of the United States. "Some of my tenderest recollections," she said, "are locked with the West and South." She will tour only the eastern cities this trip, however.

Old Indian River Rye.—Oriental.

Change program, Majestic tonight.

Nine year old Rippy.—Oriental.

WANTED COTTON-WOOD LOGS

Bids for the sale and delivery of 50 cords of Cottonwood Logs at the Plaster Mills, of "Acme Cement Plaster Company," at Acme, Chaves County, New Mexico, will be received up to January 31st, 1907, addressed "Acme Cement Plaster Company," P. O. Box 595, Roswell, N. M. Logs must not exceed 24 inches nor be less than 22 inches in length, nor over 24 inches in diameter nor less than 12 inches, must not be peeled or barked and must be sound and free from knots. Two (2) lengths of logs to make one standard cord-width. The first ten (10) cords to be delivered within ten days after acceptance of bid and notice thereof deposited in the postoffice at Roswell at address given and the balance of the fifty cords to be delivered within ninety (90) day thereafter. Cash paid on completion of contract.

Acme Cement Plaster Co.
Postoffice Box 595. Roswell, New Mexico.

DANIEL'S EDELWEISS CREAM
BEST FOR THE HANDS.
DANIEL'S DIAMOND COUGH SYRUP
BEST FOR THE COUGH.

THE DANIEL DRUG CO

Piano Bargains

Bernard Pos Piano Co
EXPERT TUNING.
Telephone 322.